

Design a badge to go on our Dinosaur back-pack and name our Eco Warrior.

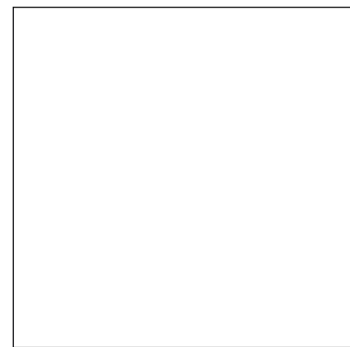

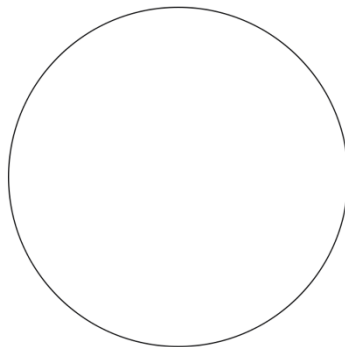

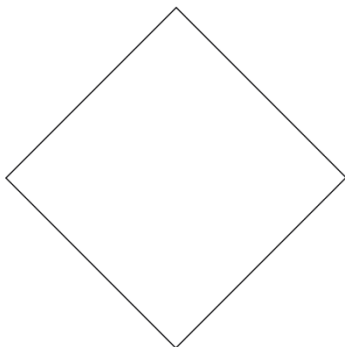

Our T.rex is going to be called T.spex and she is a girl dinosaur with a real interest in all things environmental, and she carries a ruck sack on her back. She loves running, sparkly things, picking up litter and always carries water with her.

We need you to give her a name and to design a badge to go on her rucksack and our favourite one will be put on the sculpture! You will also win a goodie bag of fun when the trail goes live.

We need to receive the entries by 21st Sept by email to hello@colemanopticians.co.uk
